LIPPIA CITRIODORA

The Lippia Citriodora belongs to the family Verbenaceae. It is an aromatic plant that, if lightly touched, it spreads an aromatic and unmistakable lemon fragrance in the air. Like all the aromatic herbs, it hardly tolerates stagnant water but, at the same time, it needs abundant watering. Blooming occurs from June to August and even up to the beginning of autumn in areas with mild climate.

Category: MEDITERRANEAN OUTDOOR PLANTS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Disponibilità
May

Esposizione
Full sun
Fioritura
Summer

Necessità Idrica
Average