

LITHODORA DIFFUSA

The Lithodora Diffusa is a groundcover and evergreen plant originating from Mediterranean Europe and it belongs to the family Boraginaceae. It has small and sharp green leaves with an evident central longitudinal grain, covered by a slight down. It produces small, tubular and intense blue flowers with five petals that make it an ideal plant to decorate flowerbeds and garden corners with blue color.

Category: PERENNIAL OUTDOOR PLANTS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Disponibilità	February, March, April
Esposizione	Full sun
Fioritura	Spring, Summer

Necessità Idrica

Average, Low

