

MONTANA SANDWORT

It belongs to the family Caryophyllaceae and it originates from Western Europe (France and Spain). The Montana Sandwort is an evergreen plant characterized by little, dark-green leaves. It produces a cushion with many pure white flowers which covers the whole vegetation. Since it is a particularly rustic plant, it is very suitable for decorating rocky gardens. It blooms in April and it prefers sunny positions.

Category: PERENNIAL OUTDOOR PLANTS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Disponibilità	February, March, April
Esposizione	Full sun, Half shade

Fioritura

Spring, Summer

Necessità Idrica

Average, Low

