

MYRTLE

It is an evergreen shrub belonging to the family Myrtaceae that originates from Mediterranean Europe (very common in Sardinia and Corsica). It is characterized by elongated, very small and intense green leaves that give marked uniformity and compactness to the plant. It produces white and perfumed flowers. It has black/light blue berries that are used to produce the namesake liqueur.

---

Category: MEDITERRANEAN OUTDOOR PLANTS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Disponibilità	March, April, May, June
Esposizione	Full sun

Fioritura

Autumn, Spring, Summer

Necessità Idrica

Low

