

WISTERIA (GLICINE)

The Wisteria is a climbing plant belonging to family Fabaceae and it originates from China and Japan. It has light green leaves and it develops wrapping on any support, literally colonizing railings and pergolas. It is characterized by an abundant and cluster hanging blooming of lilac /purple color (20 cm) that blooms along the entire length of the branches and releases a pleasant fragrance.

Category: MEDITERRANEAN OUTDOOR PLANTS

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Availability	February, March, April
Exposure	Full sun
Water need	Average, Low

Flowering

Autumn, Spring, Summer, Winter

